All-age

When is it On

On the fourth Sunday of the month and runs from 4.00pm to 6.00pm but you can join us at any time. We usually eat around 5.30pm after we have tidied up our crafty mess. Check our Facebook page to see when the next Messy Church is on. Oh, as we all go on holiday in the summer Messy Church takes a break in July and August.

What happens

Activities: art and craft, fun, games and more, all based

Everyone has the opportunity to be creative at their own pace. Most events offer three or four different messy activities for you to try out. We have made gingerbread men, painted pictures, enjoyed painting with our feet and hands.

Who is it for

A time of fun for all ages, adults, families and children

It's great for adults, families and children. If you don't like crafts you can always chill out with a coffee or tea and a biscuit or three and watch the world go by.

Does it Cost?

All the materials and food are free so come along and enjoy yourself, God loves a Messy Church.

ALL ARE WELCOME!
